

Dynapumps warrants repairing or replacing, at its option, any defects or defective parts which are proven to be solely due to bad workmanship or defective materials.

After notice of a defect is received and substantiated, Dynapumps shall, at its option, correct such defect either by suitable repair to such equipment or by furnishing replacement equipment or part(s) as necessary to the original point of shipment.

Warranty is limited to repair or replacement of defective equipment. All other costs, including, but not limited to; inspection, removal, cartage, re-installation, re-testing, costs of delay to work of contractors, consultancies gathered, cleaning up and loss of production and profits, are not covered by this warranty and would be for the purchaser's account.

With respect to equipment not manufactured by Dynapumps. Dynapumps shall assign to the purchaser the warranty Dynapumps receives from the manufacturer.

No equipment or part furnished by Dynapumps shall be deemed to be defective by reason of normal wear and tear, failure to resist erosive or corrosive action of any fluid, or purchaser's failure to properly store, install, operate or maintain the equipment in accordance with good industry practice or specific recommendations of Dynapumps.

Dynapumps shall not be liable for the cost of any repair, replacement, or adjustment to the equipment or parts made by the purchaser or for labour performed by the purchaser, or others, without prior written approval. Work performed by others without prior written approval is not covered by this warranty.

The warranty period for new products is twelve (12) months from the date of invoice or as agreed in writing. Repairs are warranted for 3 months from date of invoice. Notification of any claim made under this warranty must be made within these periods.

Dynapumps liability under this warranty shall be limited to the value of the original equipment at time of purchase.

The express warranty set forth herein is the exclusive warranty of the supplier and all other warranty terms and conditions express or implied, are excluded to the extent permitted by Australian law.
