

Aftermarket Site Service

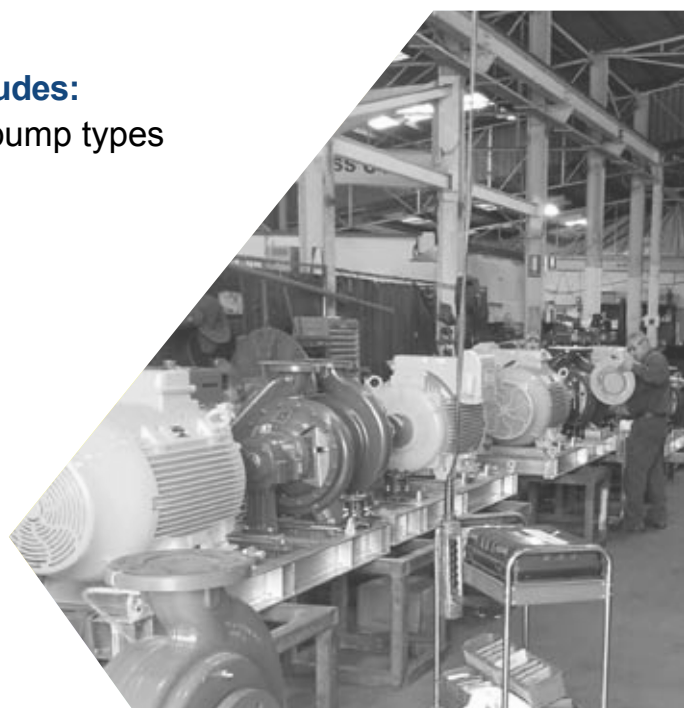

Complete Pump Service at our Workshop, this includes:

- Qualified fitters with experience in the majority of pump types
- Detailed reports including colour photos
- We keep all service history of pumps to help with ongoing condition monitoring
- Genuine parts for repairs
- All rotating parts include replacement bearings and seals as standard
- Customised ITP reports to the customer needs

We have the expertise and experience to provide onsite service is if needed, this includes:

- Diagnostic & troubleshooting services
- In-house & onsite repairs if necessary
- Preventative maintenance & support services, which may consist of continual visits
- Emergency support
- Condition monitoring services
- The majority of our staff are trade qualified and are specialists in their field

For more information and to enquire, contact Dynapumps Australia-wide on 1300 788 579 or email sales@dynapumps.com.au

Service & Repairs

Troubleshooting